

Hello, Phi U Chapters!

On behalf of Phi U National Council and the Chapter Chats Committee, I am pleased to share that we are hosting our fourth session in our NEW PHI U CHAPTER CHATS series! As a reminder, we will be hosting several Zoom events in various formats, from webinars to Q&A sessions and hope our chapters and members will take the opportunity to engage and learn in this new virtual format!

Please join us March 10, 2021 at 7:00 PM CENTRAL for our session topic...

Winning Résumés with Dr. Killough: Put Your Leadership and Project Experience to Work

We are very honored to have a special guest speaker, Jay Killough, Ph.D. For the past 20 years, Dr. Jay Killough has worked in Higher Education at Texas Tech as an Admissions Counselor/Director of the University Career Center, and adjunct faculty member with the College of Human Sciences. Killough has presented career information across the country, as well as, internationally at various conferences and workshops on topics such as Strengths-Based career advising and career search strategies. He teaches the Senior Capstone course in the College of Human Sciences where students have the opportunity to synthesize their degree and create their own career paths.

Killough received his bachelor's degree in Public Relations, a Master's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies and his Ph.D. in Family and Consumer Sciences Education all from Texas Tech. He is married to his beautiful wife Lacey and they have two children, Graham and Elise.

Please mark your calendars and share with other chapter officers! (See Zoom info. highlighted below.)

Thank you for sharing with other chapter officers!
