

Hello, Phi U Chapters!

On behalf of Phi U National Council and the Chapter Chats Committee, I am pleased to share that we are hosting our fifth session in our NEW PHI U CHAPTER CHATS series! As a reminder, we will be hosting several Zoom events in various formats, from webinars to Q&A sessions and hope our chapters and members will take the opportunity to engage and learn in this new virtual format!

Please join us April 21, 2021 at 7:00 PM CENTRAL for our session topic...

FCS Storytelling with Dr. Nancy Franz: Determining and Articulating the Value of FCS

We are very honored to have a special guest speaker, Dr. Nancy Franz, Professor Emeritus, Iowa State University School of Education. Nancy retired after 33 years of service with the Cooperative Extension System. Most recently she served as the Director for Professional Development, Associate Dean for Extension and Outreach, and Associate Dean and Director of Extension and Outreach to Families at Iowa State University. She also served as an Extension agent, specialist, graduate student, and administrator over her life with Extension systems in Wisconsin, New York, New Hampshire, Virginia, and Iowa. Her scholarly interests include determining conditions that promote transformative learning in nonformal learning environments and measuring and articulating Extension program quality and value. She holds a PhD in Agriculture, Extension, and Adult Education from Cornell University, a Masters in Education Professional Development from the University of Wisconsin-Superior, a Bachelors of Science in Environmental Studies and Outdoor Education/Recreation.

This special session in our Phi U Chapter Chat series is graciously sponsored by the Phi Upsilon Omicron Educational Foundation's Louise Young Lectureship Fund. Thank you for your support!!!

Please mark your calendars, and share with other chapter members! (See Zoom info. highlighted below.)

Thank you for sharing with other chapter officers!
